SIXTY-SECOND YEAR NO. 48

CEDARVILLE, OHIO, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1939

PRICE, $1.50 A YEAR

NEWS LETTER FROM STATE DEPARTMENTS

U. S. Senator Robert A. Taft was endorsed as Ohio's Republican candidate for President in 1940 and Governor John W. Bricker was endorsed for a second term at a meeting held on October 17. The action of the Committee was unanimous as also was the vote to support the state constitutional amendment creating a State Board of Education and to oppose the Bigelow old age pension act amendments and the Civil Service referendum, the latter initiated by the Democrat State Committee.

A meeting of the Democrat State Committee called for October 19 failed to produce a quorum, as only 14 of the 48 members answered the call issued by State Chairman Hansfield. Resolutions opposing the Bigelow amendments and endorsing the Civil Service referendum had been prepared for the meeting, which may be held later, but no action endorsing a Democrat Presidential candidate is expected before some time in January.

"From all I've heard or seen
I know 'tis paradise—or Ohio."
Now comes Charles Albert, Bellefontaine, O., who reports he has cotton blooming at his home. He had a crop of 100 plants this year. Yearly, the Rainbow end is in Ohio.

Going along with President Roosevelt, as Ohio law provides he must, Governor Bricker's Thanksgiving proclamation fixes the Ohio date as Thursday, November 23rd. When the President announced that he was moving up the national festival one week and proclaim it for November 23 instead of the 30th, the normal date under past precedent, 22 states agreed to the date fixed by the President, including Ohio, Michigan, Utah, Indiana and Pennsylvania. Sticking to the old date in revolt against any tinkering with tradition are 23 others, among them being Alabama, Arkansas, Kentucky, Tennessee and North Carolina. Three states were reported as still undecided on October 20. So it appears that the good old U. S. A. has so much to be thankful for this year that it will take two official Thanksgiving Day festivals throughout the country to express a due appreciation.

For the first time in more than 10 years railroads entering Columbus are employing new men, the list on furlough having been exhausted. One official announced, "If this war boom in business continues much longer, the 'No Men Wanted' signs will have to come down and we will really have to go out and hire men."

Ohio, which once produced more than 40,000,000 tons of soft coal a year, now ranks fifth with an annual production of 17,920,000 tons, according to recent figures released by the U. S. Bituminous Coal Division.

Significance is suggested by a comparison of administrative costs of the Ohio Division of Aid for the Aged. On February 1, there were 111,183 pensioners on the roll receiving $2,510,319 monthly and the payroll revealed 1050 employees. On October 1 there were 120,925 pensioners receiving $2,748,814 monthly and there were only 800 employees on the payroll. The total cost of administration for the first nine months of 1938 was $1,155,856 as compared with $980,999 for the same period this year, a savings of $174,857.

Court decisions in Ohio and 10 other states have held that secret agreements between Home Owners Loan Corp. borrowers and private financing institutions, wherein the borrowers were compelled to give a second mortgage in order to secure a loan, are illegal. The HOLC has offered legal assistance to borrowers who have given second mortgages for such purpose.

The War Department is expected to issue an order of final approval for two large flood control dams in Ohio at an early date. The dams will be across the Olentangy river six miles north of Delaware at an estimated cost of $4,000,000 and across the Licking river five miles west of Zanesville to cost about $6,000,000. The Delaware dam will be more than 3 miles long and will have a flood area of some 5,000 acres. The conservation pool, which will be filled at all times, will cover only about 80 or 100 acres. The Licking dam will be 1900 feet long, 110 feet high with a flood spread of 11,000 acres. The dams were authorized in the 1938 flood control act.

Triangle Farms

Completes Fair Trip

Triangle Farms headed by W. R. Watt and Justin Owens has completed the fair circuit and the herd of Duroc hogs was returned here the first of the week, having been out since the Ohio State Fair. Reports indicate a profitable season. The herd was shown only at state fairs including New York, Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia and South Carolina.

Ohio State Plans Journalism Program

Twelfth annual Journalism Hall of Fame dinner and a symposium on "The New Propaganda Menace" make up the program which Ohio State University's School of Journalism is providing October 27 and 28 for Ohio newspapermen and women.

Two names will be formally added to Ohio's Journalism Hall of Fame at a dinner the night of October 27 in the Faculty Club, according to Dr. James E. Pollard, director of the school of journalism.

They are Brand Whitlock and Frank M. "Kin" Hubbard, recently approved by a "jury of 75 editors and historians. Whitlock in early life was associated with Toledo and Chicago papers, winning international fame later as U. S. ambassador to Belgium during the World War. He was a native of Urbana. Hubbard, born at Mansfield, worked on papers in Bellefontaine, Cincinnati, Mansfield and Indianapolis. He was best known as the creator of "Abe Martin."

The propaganda discussion will be started at the Hall of Fame dinner, the speaker being Dr. Ralph D. Casey, head of the department of journalism at the University of Minnesota, and a long-time student of propaganda.

Farmers Hear Old Age Plan Discussed

Edwin Bath, legislative agent of the Ohio Farm Bureau, discussed the Bigelow amendments before the Farm Bureau group at Central High School, Xenia, Wednesday night. He pointed out that while the whole idea was the adoption of single tax or tax for pensions on real estate for a select few and not for all citizens who become 60 years of age. He said there is no provision in the plan whatever for the farm groups as well as those who have retired from other lines of business or professions, regardless of their circumstances. The adoption of this plan wipes out the present old age pensions that now average about $23 a month. He urged all farmers to go to the polls and vote and see that their neighbors did the same, opposing the amendments.

Charles Ritenour Summued Friday

Charles R. Ritenour, 78, prominent Ross Twp. farmer, died at his home at Grape Grove Friday at 5:25 a. m. In failing health several years suffering from diabetes, he had been seriously ill two months.

Mr. Ritenour, who was born and spent his entire life on the farm where he died, was the son of Joseph and Lucinda Little Ritenour.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Lucie Ritenour, two grandchildren, Robert and Mary Paulin, of Dayton; and two sisters, Mrs. Laura Belle Hutslar, of Springfield, and Mrs. Heber Douthett, of Xenia. A daughter, Mrs. Howard Paulin, of Dayton, died in August, and a son, Russell, died twenty-five years ago. A brother, B. K., and a sister, Mrs. Eurastus Little, also preceded him in death.

Funeral services were conducted at the home Sunday, in charge of Rev. S. M. Smith, of the Xenia Church of Christ, assisted by Rev. Joseph McElroy, of the Grape Grove Church of Christ. Burial took place in Grape Grove Cemetery.

Enquirer Tests Public Sentiment

The Cincinnati Enquirer has been publishing for several days interviews in various counties as to how the Bigelow pension plan will effect each county, figures being taken from the county auditor's office. In effect instead of having a one per cent county auditor's office. In effect in tax rate on farms as we have the Bigelow plan will add two more per cent and in addition take what ever revenue from county funds, township funds, school funds and municipal funds as are necessary, making certain service such as police and fire and schools impossible at the standard that exists today.

The Enquirer carries interviews of leading farmers in each county and several have been asked as to how the farm owner can meet this extra tax local. The usual answer has been that rents will be higher where farms are rented for cash. Where the fifty-fifty rule and one-third rule is used a definite sum will be necessary to be charged as privileges.

Several have stated that if they were in the market for another farm, they would look outside Ohio if the Bigelow plan is passed.

Yellow Springs Woman Given $7500 By Jury

A jury in common pleas court awarded Mrs. Leontine Nickell, Yellow Springs, $7500 in her 15,000 damage suit against Braden Smith, Federal Pike farmer.

A jury which tried the case originally awarded the plaintiff $1000 last May 26 but Judge Frank L. Johnson granted a new trial on the grounds the sum was inadequate. The suit was based on the fatal injury of Mrs. Nickell's husband, Dorsey, Xenia, when his auto collided with that of Smith on Route 72 the night of April 26, 1938.

REV. R. A. ANDERSON DIED IN WILMETTE, ILL. WEDNESDAY

Word has been received of the death of Rev. R. A. Anderson, in Wilmette, Ill., Wednesday. Burial will take place in Loudenville, O., Saturday, his former home. His wife preceded him in death a number of years ago.

Rev. Anderson, the father of Mrs. Dora Anderson Harper, formerly a member of the faculty of Cedarville College, would have been 100 years old had he lived eleven days more.

Mail Truck Driver Escapes Truck Smash Friday Morning

Ralph Oglesbee, Xenia, who hauls mail on the star route between Xenia, Cedarville and Jamestown, escaped a mysterious death last Friday morning on Route 42 west of town when he crashed into a truck while driving at high speed, according to those who witnessed. The truck was almost a total wreck.

The gravel truck was loaded and driven by David Baldwin, Jamestown, who also escaped injury. Oglesbee attempted to pass another car on the hill. Road Patrolman Cecil Strobridge investigated.

Cong. C. J. Brown On Ag. Committee

Two Ohio Congressmen, Clarence J. Brown of the 7th District and Cliff Cleveland of the 5th District, were named Tuesday, as members of the nation-wide Special Committee to Study Agricultural Problems, by Joseph W. Martin, Republican leader of the House of Representatives.

In making the appointments Mr. Martin pointed out, "Mr. Brown and Mr. Cleveland represent great agricultural districts, and both gentlemen have such a thorough knowledge of the agricultural problems of the state of Ohio and the Middle West generally as to particularly well qualify them to represent Ohio in the important work of this Committee."

Clifford R. Hope of Kansas, ranking Republican member of the Committee on Agriculture, was named chairman of the new Committee.

Two Local Citizens On Federal Jury

Names of seventeen Greene County residents appear on grand and petit jury venues drawn Friday in U. S. district court at Dayton. Fifteen will be summoned in each group.

Grand jurors will report at 10:30 a. m. Nov. 20 and petit jurors have been summoned for 2 p. m. Nov. 6.

The grand jury venire includes: J. Weir Cooper, Xenia, R. R. 4; Xenia, Robert D. Chast, Osborn; Arch Copsey, Springfield Valley; and W. R. Spittler, Xenia, R. R. 4.

Prominent Citizens In Murder Trial Drama

A plan of a condemned man for Justice that has thrilled thousands throughout the United States will be delivered by George Young Hammond of Hollywood, California, when he appears in his famous true life court drama, "Prisoner At The Bar" at the Xenia First Methodist Church, Wednesday night, November 1st at 7:30 p. m.

GEORGE Y. HAMMOND "Prisoner"

The Trial deals with a man, Ralph Jones, who is charged with the murder of his wife while under the influence of liquor. The State charges that the crime was committed in the presence of the defendant's little six year old daughter, who is called to testify against him. The defendant charging others in the court room with the murder—the battle between the opposing attorneys over the use of the child as a witness—the commotion in court when the defendant makes a break to stop his little daughter from testifying. These are some of the gripping scenes in this powerful drama from real life.

The Methodist Board of Temperance has secured the personal appearance of the author, George Young Hammond of Hollywood, for the production of this drama throughout the country.

Mr. Hammond will appear as the Prisoner in the Trial, and will be supported by a local cast of twenty-one citizens in the following parts:

Judge, Rev. J. R. Fields; District Attorney, Rev. Ernest A. Wall; Defense Attorney, Neal Hartman; Star Witness, Mrs. Walter St. John; Finger Print Expert, Supt. R. J. Warner; Prisoner's Little Daughter, Neva Dean; Sheriff, Rev. C. A. Arthur; Clerk, Rev. David H. Markle; Bailiff, Rev. J. G. Laughlin; Summoned on the Jury, George H. Hartman, Carl Bonner, M. C. Smith, Russell Spahr, Miss Dorothy Nelson, Prof. Carl Wright, Grover King, Rev. T. E. Kinnison, Rev. W. A. Moore, Mrs. A. C. Turrell, Mrs. L. A. Washburn, Rev. Ray Huff.

The Methodist Board of Temperance is presenting this modern drama of liquor without admission charge as part of its nation-wide program of education. An offering will be taken.

Selma Man Gets Jail Sentence

Walter Ogle, 38, of Selma, was convicted on a charge of drunken driving Saturday in Springfield Municipal Court. He received a 30 day jail sentence, a fine of $100 and costs, and had his driving permit suspended for one year.

A state patrolman testified he found Ogle slumped over the steering wheel of his automobile on the night of Sept. 24, on the Lower Valley Pike west of Springfield.

Feed Store Moved To New Location

The Cummings Feed Store has been combined with the Cedarville Implements, Inc., and the machinery for grinding and mixing has been installed in the Clemans building at the rear. The room vacated will be improved and used for display of farm machinery.

You Can Get Help By Being Careful

Now that Halloween is just around the corner it might pay you to have as little movable property outside as possible that night. The young folks can have their fun but damage or destruction of property is not fun. Not being on the changeable list of dates such as Thanksgiving, Halloween still falls on October 31st, without presidential edict.

80 PER CENT SIGN UP

Joseph B. Mason, chairman of the county conservation program reports that 80 per cent, or 1,838 farms, are now signed up on wheat program.

There will be two pictures, "The River" and "The Plow that Broke the Plain." The public is cordially invited to see these free motion pictures.

NO HUNTING SIGNS AND HUNTING SEASON NEARS

The hunting season nears and your farm should be protected by posting as required by law. As there has been much sickness among hogs there is another reason why farms should be posted. We have ample stock on hand of signs.

SEWERAGE DISPOSAL DEMONSTRATION POSTPONED

A sewerage disposal demonstration to be held at the Arthur Bahn's farm on Wednesday, October 25, has been postponed until spring. Plans are being made to hold the demonstration next spring according to an announcement by Robert Bernard, assistant county agent.

TAX MONIES DISTRIBUTED BY COUNTY AUDITOR

County Auditor James J. Curlett announces the distribution of $246,172.90 to the various taxing districts in the county, being the semi-annual settlement of real estate, special assessment and inheritance taxes.

The following is the list of payments:

County Auditor, Curlett, is distributing $75,835.05 of which the state will receive $35,054.83 and $268.20 will revert to the county general fund in the form of fees.

Hybrid Project For Beginners In 1940

Apprentice Producers of Seed of Corn Hybrids in 1940 should secure blanks and information at the county agents office.

The main purposes of continuing the apprentice type of project is to give prospective growers the same opportunity that older cooperators have had in learning the problems and difficulties involved in satisfactory seed production. To minimize financial disappointments that may be incurred by inexperienced or unqualified producers. To reduce the likelihood of non-cooperative producers initiating seed production of unadapted and unimproved hybrids.

Apprentice plots vary from one-tenth to one-fourth acre and therefore provide growers the experience in producing hybrid seed corn.

International Show December 2 to 9

The International Live Stock show will be held this year from December 2nd to 9th at Chicago Stock Yards. Reports indicate the heaviest entry list in the history of the show. Premiums will amount to more than $100,000 and cover more than 30 different breeds of cattle, horses, sheep, and swine, some 12,000 head being expected. Canada, Argentina and Australia will have exhibits of live stock and grain. The coliseum where the show will be staged seats 7,500.

RAINFALL WELCOMED

The steady rain that fell most of Wednesday and continued until Thursday was welcomed especially by wheat farmers. It is reported by the weather bureau to be the largest rain fall so far this year in this section, about 1.85 inches. Continued warm weather will revive the wheat and give it a hold before severe weather arrives.

Local Schools To Have Jamboree

The local schools will sponsor the Great Miami Valley Hayloft Jamboree entertainers, who will present a two-hour show at the Cedarville Opera House, Friday, November 10, 8:15 p. m.

They have a cast of twenty characters—all "Hillbillies." This is their second season with many repeat performances.

When In Doubt Vote "NO" on any Constitutional Amendment or Referendum Proposal.

WE ARE DRAWING STEP BY STEP NEARER— TO WAR

If you have a son of draft age you might as well make up your mind now that Roosevelt will have him at the front in Europe at the first opportunity. It is certain that regardless of the efforts of the minority in congress to maintain strict neutrality the Democratic majority is going to vote for repeal of that law. Roosevelt dickered with Anthony Eden and King George during their visit and committed this nation to furnish both men and money, just as was done during the World War, irrespective of the views of the majority of people at home.

The Senate will no doubt vote to repeal the neutrality law this week and the House will do so later under threats to individual members if they do not support the administration plan.

England tossed Poland to the German forces to keep the latter from the British Isles until Roosevelt could get American troops across the ditch but events in the Democratic party under Sen. Clark, D., Mo., who is leading the minority, delayed action on the neutrality bill until now. Meantime Poland has been wiped out and both Hitler and Stalin take their slice. If the worst comes to the worst England will forsake even France to save her hide when Hitler starts his "bath of blood."

Much of the turmoil abroad is due to England's attitude in the past. Certainly this country does not need to have any part in this war in as much as the allies have money for war but not one cent on their World War debt due this nation. Washington orders the Ohio militia to recruit its ranks and drill twice each week. Think of that!

COMMUNISM IN YOUR GOVERNMENT

One of the outstanding acts of the New Deal administration is the work of the Dies committee in Congress investigating and exposing the activities of Communistic Reds in and out of government circles.

Some weeks ago Dies stated that Roosevelt was to fire 2,000 Communists that had been given government places of importance during his administration. It has been charged frequently and never denied but that these appointments were made to pay for Communistic support in the election of Roosevelt. Following the Dies announcement, Roosevelt denied that he had ever made the statement. This pleased the Russian Reds who were on the payroll.

This week Cong. Dies makes known a list of 500 Russian Reds or members of the Communist party that are on government payroll at the grace of FDR. A storm of protest arose because the names were made public both in Red circles as well as New Deal quarters.

For instance there is the name of Edwin S. Smith, member of the NLRB board that protects the CIO union leaders in strikes. His salary is $10,000. Louis Block, Maritime Labor Board, salary $10,000, where CIO is welcome and industry not. Mordecai Ezekiel, Agriculture Administration under Secretary Wallace at a salary of $8,000. Radical labor leaders who make no denial of being Communists are in important places at high salaries.

With the cabinet loaded with pinks of the Perkins and Ickes stripe and cheap lawyers with Red leaning on the Supreme bench, you have a sample of what Russia is in the U. S. A. And yet Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, the traveling half of the presidential household, attempts to smear Col. Charles Lindbergh because he does not approve of the Roosevelt back-door method of entering the European war.

RENEW SPECIAL SCHOOL TAX LEVY

You will be handed a ballot at the coming election calling for a vote on continuing the special three mill tax levy for support of the local schools. During the last five years the levy was authorized, the board at times found sufficient funds without using the full amount. You can depend on the board continuing this policy in the future for it is just as important today that the board have sufficient finance to keep up the required standard of our schools. By voting for this levy you are not adding new taxes in any form.

"The Rev." Herbert Bigelow is getting a lot of free publicity these days. The Single tax advocate has had the left-appendix to his name for many years. He is unique in the field of religion. He has no church. He has no church denomination, being a single unit to himself. His church is neither Protestant, Catholic or Jewish as we recognize church division these days. For years the "Rev." has been an exponent of single tax, all taxes to be levied on land. He has been more active in Socialism than preaching religion. He has prayed for the day when that great "divide" will take place between those "who have and those who have not." He is more independent in the field of religion than in politics. When not a candidate, he is strong for Socialism. When a candidate for office he is a Democrat. Once more he is a thorn in the side of Democratic leaders, just as he was forty years ago. The party is split over his entrance as a candidate for governor, using the old age pension plan to ride over Charles Sawyer and Martin L. Davey, both men of wealth of the Torry type so much despised by the one-hundred per cent Socialist, and the hide-bound New Dealer.

Herbert Mengert, Columbus correspondent of the Enquirer, digs up some history in that Bigelow in 1902 was a candidate on the Democratic ticket for secretary of state, using the single tax plan to win but he met a terrible defeat as the vote of the rural counties rolled into state headquarters.

It was in that campaign that Bigelow spoke before a Farmer's Institute in the local opera house, advocating single tax, but he made no impression on the audience of farmers. The writer of this column called on Bigelow in his room at the hotel following his talk. His last statement to the writer was: "As long as I am able to hold up my right arm I will advocate the adoption of single tax in Ohio." Many are of the opinion that Bigelow today is more interested in adoption of single tax than the pension plan, hoping to carry his change in the constitution from 100-100 signers to petitions to 50,000 signers. Bigelow in his speech in Memorial hall, Springfield, last Sunday, said: "We are not proposing a flat pension of $50 a month for single persons, or $80 for married couples who are retired from gainful occupation." He repeated the same statement Monday evening over the radio. At the same time he appealed for contributions and read a list of CIO union organizations that had already made gifts. He also made it plain that only "wage earners" could benefit under his pension plan. He never mentions that if his plan is adopted the present old age pension plan will become illegal or paid only out of federal funds. In Texas where the same pension plan was adopted most of the pensioners get only $8.50 a month from federal funds, while in Ohio at present it averages about $23.50 a month. Many trades people, professional, teachers, preachers, farmers and farm labor as well as retired businessmen or women are not included in the Bigelow plan.

The United States Supreme Court, Roosevelt controlled, ran away with a decision that set New Dealers in the jitters stage. Just what influenced the court to back away from the New Deal plan of controlled medicine, a radical Communistic proposal, is a mystery. The Department of Justice undertook to get even with the American Medical Society by charging a violation of the Sherman-anti-trust act. A District of Columbia court rendered a decision against the New Dealers and had it affirmed by the highest court. Dr. Roosevelt, Dr. Perkins, Dr. Ickes, Dr. Cohen and others who think they know medicine can lay their defeat of the Communistic plan to their own court.

Can you as a citizen figure out the position the state Democratic organization is in at the present time? Some weighty problems are going unsolved, if you look for information from the state party leaders. The Sawyer branch of the party is out against the Bigelow old age pension plan but favorable to pensions as now paid by the state and federal government. The other three factions have stuck their heads ostrich-like in the sand, as if there was nothing of importance before the people. Some of these days the Bigelow stand will bite the faction now hiding. The Bigelow followers depended on full Democratic support and there was some trading to get signers for the Democratic referendum petitions. In some places county chairmen have come to the front in opposing the Bigelow plan. The checking of petitions in this county showed a larger per cent of the peddlers seeking signers were Democrats with one Socialist, who carried eight different petitions.

Dr. Arthur E. Morgan, Yellow Springs, who was kicked off the Tennessee Valley Authority by Roosevelt, has appealed his suit for $4,589 for salary. Col. Charles Lindbergh received the White House boot because he exercised his individual right in expressing himself as opposed to repeal of the neutrality act so we can meddle in the British-German war. Morgan exposed wrong doing among New Dealers on his board.

W. F. Kirk, state master of Ohio Grange, is out with a forceful statement to farmers in an appeal to defeat the Bigelow old age pension plan. A "first lien on state revenues"; would threaten "revenues for school and local government" and would nullify the 10-mill limitation for which rural areas voted for so many years prior to its adoption. As to the second proposal of Bigelow reducing the requirement of 100,000 signatures for initiated bills to 50,000 signers, "is but opening the way for the single tax government which is to place all taxation upon real estate," says Kirk. This amendment would destroy representative government farmers have been warned.

Senator Clark, D., Mo., brings up an unusual situation in the Senate debate over neutrality when he pictures Roosevelt at a church gathering and the pastor praying for the King of England that he might have strength to overcome his enemies. This war business brings up unusual things. We ran across this news item from England: Newcastle, Eng. Conscientious objectors broke up a meeting when Judge Richardson, chairman said, "I am as certain as sure as I sit here, that if Christ appeared today he would approve of this war." In 1914 we recall a remark by the Kaiser, "Me and God," as partners in the World War.

A prominent citizen of Jamestown explains that "things are in a heck of a shape," due to recent suit by a bond holder which will force all property owners to connect with the municipal sewerage system. This means also that the property must have water connections to have use of the sewerage system. To make matters worse a rental charge is fixed for use of the sewer connection. This system says there are many that will find the new order a real hardship due to lack of finances. Both water and sewer systems were New Deal jobs, he sort that had the "free money" from Washington attached. Everybody in the village this citizens say "all for the chance to 'get something for nothing' without looking deeper into the 'small print' in the contract. There is nothing the town can do but follow court orders and 'pay regardless of how it hurts'. Even though every piece of property in the village is connected with both systems, there will not be enough revenue to meet the 'court order'."

Sabbath School, 10:00 a. m. Supt. Emile Finney.

NINETY YEARS

By Charles Evans Lammle

"I'll be ninety years old, if I live five months more." An active farmer spoke the words. He was starting the evening chores, and we met in the barnyard. He stood straight. He heard easily. His eyes were good. We conversed several minutes. He resumed his chores, I went my way. I had faced a remarkable man.

Ninety years is a long time for one human life. Not many who were born in 1850 still survive. Most all have dropped out of the picture. Zachary Taylor was the president of the United States. "Old Rough and Ready" and his comrades were back from the Mexican War two years. The Civil War was still eleven years away. No one dreamed of the Spanish-American war or the World War. No automobile had been built. There was no airplane or radio, no movies, no cement roads, no telephones.

In the conversation he had asked, "Do you see that field of corn over there?" As I recall, it appeared to be about six acres. "I cut all but twenty shocks of that," he said with becoming pride, "I'd get tired and then go in to the house and rest a while. I'd soon go at it again. I like to work. It is good for me."

I had listened in sheer admiration. Here was a program of life. Work and rest, a proper balance of interests and mingled enjoyment. He said he was born on this farm, and always lived on it. His father had owned it before him, and before that his father was the owner. He and his wife have been married sixty-five years. She is eighty-six. They have many descendants.

What contentment! What devotion to one spot. Most of us Americans are migrants. Few of us stay in the one locality a lifetime. There are the rare exceptions, and this is one of them.

"Yes, I'm a churchman," he said. Then I surmised the secret of this long well-spent life. He used his own powers under the direction of the Higher Power. He watched the seasons come and go, the crops unfold, the children develop, and industry and government evolve, under the benign providence of the Eternal. And he had his place in life, and made the most of it.

Ninety years. A period between two eternities for back of him is the boundless past, and before him the undisclosed future. He is passing this way but once. When the pilgrimage is ended here he will never more return. Therefore he is using every day to the best of his ability, for in the eternity of the future, there will be the final estimation of the real values of his life both by man and God.

Here's hope that he will live five months more to be ninety, and then years beyond that.

COLLEGE NEWS

Dr. Markle represented Cedarville College at the occasion of the inauguration of Dr. Herbert John Burghstahler as President of Ohio Wesleyan University. 190 colleges and universities were represented.

The College Mixed Chorus sang Tuesday night at the A. M. E. Church in Cedarville.

The College was honored Wednesday by a visit by Rev. John Sharpe, Moderator of the Synod of Ohio. Members of the faculty and student body agree that his address in chapel was one of the finest to be heard at the college, in recent years.

The Annual College Halloween-Party and Dance was held Thursday evening. This year's affair was sponsored by the College Y. M. C. A.

Dr. McChesney will give the Dedication Address at the dedication of the new addition at Pasadena High School. He will occupy the pupil at Friends Church, in Xenia, Sabbath evening.

The Dramatic Club will present a one act play entitled, "For the Love of Kitty," Tuesday evening.

The college extends best wishes to Paul W. Rife, former student, who last Saturday was married to Miss Harriet Zerbe at Simpson Methodist Church in Canton.

FIFTY GUESTS ENTERTAINED

Fifty guests were received by Mrs. J. W. Johnson and Mrs. Aden Barlow at a delightful tea at the latter's home on Church st., Thursday afternoon between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock.

Throughout the afternoon music was furnished by the Cedarville College male quartet, and Mrs. Willard Barlow, of Columbus, sang three solos. Mrs. David H. Markle was accompanied for the musical program.

The hostesses presided at the table, which was decorated with an attractive centerpiece of yellow chrysanthemums and tapers in pastel colors.

Guests were received from Cedarville, Columbus, Xenia, Clifton and Waldo, O.

2,000,000 NEW CUSTOMERS FOR MILK, EACH YEAR

Each year approximately 2,000,000 babies are born in the United States. Throughout early childhood they are the nation's most enthusiastic milk consumers. Each year in millions of homes happy youngsters demonstrate to millions of parents and other adults the unequalled values of all forms of milk—for growth, for health, for well-being.

Holding these youthful millions as life-long customers is of great importance—to their own good health, to total volume of milk sales, and to the dairy farmer's income. Borden's nutrition research and year-around educational efforts serve this three-fold purpose.

Bigelow Plan Threatens To WIPE OUT WELFARE WORK IN OHIO!

Think of Ohio's unfortunate boys and girls—the many thousands of crippled, blind and dependent children in the state—before you vote on November 7. Think of the homes that will be wrecked, the many lives that will be ruined by adoption of the Bigelow proposal, which will stop welfare work throughout Ohio!

Remember this proposal will operate as a first mortgage on all state revenues. It has first call on every tax dollar collected in Ohio. Bigelow payments must be made before a single dollar goes into welfare activities.

Welfare Agencies Doomed!
Wm. S. Ewalt, Tax Commissioner for the Ohio Department of Taxation, estimates the Bigelow plan will cost 310 millions of dollars. Two back-breaking new taxes are set up in the amendment. But even then there will be a shortage upwards of 170 millions of dollars.

31,000 Needy Children
There are 31,000 needy children in the state whose homes will be broken up if Aid for Dependent Children is stopped. State aid to the widowed mothers and incapacitated fathers in these homes keeps these 31,000 children in school, lets them lead normal lives, saves them from crime.

3308 Crippled Children
Today 3308 crippled children—more than ever before—are being cared for in state hospitals. They are given special school class instruction in 88 classes in 32 cities. 1300 crippled children are given school instruction in their homes, and others are given special training in hospitals or convalescent homes. All this work will be stopped by the Bigelow plan.

4000 Blind Persons
Welfare work in Ohio is rehabilitating 4000 blind persons. They are trained to do useful work, earn money and be independent. To prevent blindness, a special sight-saving program is conducted in the schools. For deaf persons, there are 68 classes in lip-reading and other training—in 18 cities in the state.

All State Institutions Endangered
Money now going to state prisons, state hospitals for the insane, feeble-minded and epileptics will be cut off. What will happen to the 38,000 persons in Ohio's penal and correctional institutions? Overcrowded now, badly in need of more money, what will happen if even part of Ohio's Welfare Funds are used for the huge Bigelow payments of 310 million dollars a year?

The Bigelow Amendment will throw 5000 trained welfare workers out of employment and wreck services of the Welfare Department affecting half a million people. It will stop Welfare Department administration of relief funds, cutting off services to another half million people.

The Second Bigelow Amendment
This amendment is a direct blow at representative government in Ohio. It gives small minorities the power to initiate any bad law or crank proposal. By cutting down the signatures required by our present initiative system, this Amendment will give control to special interests and have exactly the opposite effect intended originally for the initiative.

THE OHIO EMERGENCY COMMITTEE
B. B. Bramley, Chairman, Neil House, Columbus, Ohio
Because these amendments are vague and detailed, we hope you will write to the above address for descriptive literature. If you can spare a dollar bill to help in the fight, enclose it.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D.
Dean of The Bible Institute of Chicago
(Released by Western Newspaper Union)

Lesson for October 29

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

BEVERAGE ALCOHOL AND SOCIAL PROGRESS

LESSON TEXT—Micah 2:9-11; Luke 21:28-31, 34-36; 1 Corinthians 6:9-11.
GOLDEN TEXT—Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God?—1 Corinthians 6:9.

"International Temperance Sunday—October 29, 1939." Let us join with people the world over in making our protest against the sale and use of intoxicating liquors. If every Christian would declare himself on this matter now, there would be a tremendous impact made on this universal problem and notice would be served on the liquor industry, on politicians, and on unbelieving mankind that Christianity intends to do something about it. We are far too docile and quiet on such matters, when we ought to speak up for God and for our country.

The lesson portions may seem a little unrelated, but study of them yields three important truths regarding the use of wine and strong drink.

I. Lovers of Wine and Strong Drink Destroy Their Nation (Mic. 2:9-11).

That statement may surprise some of our self-styled patriots who like to wave the flag and speak swelling words of devotion to our country and who at the same time love their intoxicating drinks. Micah rightly points out that his people had come to the place where they chose men to be prophets because they encouraged the people in the use of wine and strong drinks (v. 11). They must therefore expect the result which follows, namely, the destruction of the home and of the nation (vv. 9, 10).

We are all familiar with the claim that prohibition retarded the advancement of our nation and that its repeal would bring a return to higher moral standards, reduce crime, bring in prosperity, etc. The facts reveal that none of these have come true. Crime has increased by leaps and bounds under repeal, a situation so well known as to call for no proof. Moral standards have gone rapidly downward with the free use of liquor. If you don't believe that, ask a policeman what goes on in one of his taverns, or keep your eyes half open and you can see for yourself.

Just now much is being made of the many jobs which are supposed to have been created by the liquor industry. What are the facts? The Christian Herald tells us, "A million dollars spent for furniture would employ 339 persons, spent for boots and shoes 338 persons, for home furnishings 191 persons, for booze just 95 persons." And remember that jobs making the stuff that destroys other jobs, are not worth having. The man who drinks is helping to destroy his nation.

II. Christians Do Not Drink, Because They Look for Christ's Return (Luke 21:29-31, 34-36).

If we are not "looking for that blessed hope and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Savior Jesus Christ" (Titus 2:13), we should consider whether any of the things mentioned in these verses have gained control in our lives: the cares of this life, surfeiting, or drunkenness. But why speak to Christians about that? Surely they do not use intoxicants. Sadly enough, some do. Taking advantage of the fact that the Bible speaks of temperance rather than of abstinence, they seek to justify an indulgence in these things which they (and their neighbors) know is dishonoring to God and destructive to their testimony and usefulness in the community.

Christian, Jesus is coming again! He may come today! In fact, the fig tree (vv. 29, 30), which is the nation Israel, has long been shooting forth new branches and bearing green leaves. The indications are that Christ is coming soon. Are you ready to meet Him?

III. Drunkards and Other Sinners Need to be Saved (1 Cor. 6:9-11).

Being drunk is not a joke, even though thoughtless people laugh and cartoonists and writers of jokes use such unfortunates as their stock in trade. Drunkenness is a foul and sinful thing, classed by the apostle Paul with the lowest of human vices. Review the list as it is given in verses 9 and 10 (and by the way, notice that covetousness is mentioned there too) and place drunkenness in its proper classification. Call it what it really is—sin, and then call on the One who can save from sin and then you will be washed from your sin, sanctified, and justified in the name of the Lord Jesus (v. 11). In Christ there is hope for the drunkard. A spiritual revival is the real answer to the liquor problem. Let us seek to promote it even as we at the same time give ourselves to an intelligent and constructive battle against the destructive force in the life of a nation.

Temperance Verdicts of Great Men

On an ancient Egyptian tomb it is said there is an inscription to the effect, "His earthly tenement was shattered by beer and wine, and his spirit departed before it was called for."

Buddha about 550 B. C. taught: "Drink not liquors that intoxicate and disturb the reason."
Chaucer, in the fourteenth century observed that "character and shame depart when wine comes in."
Abraham Lincoln said: "Liquor might have defenders, but no defense! Whether or not the world would be vastly benefited by a total and final banishment from it of all intoxicating drinks, seems to me not an open question."

Gladstone wrote: "The ravages of drink are greater than those of war, pestilence, and famine combined."
Cardinal Gibbons is reported to have said: "The great curse of the laboring man is intemperance. It has brought more desolation to the wage earner than strikes or war or sickness or death. It has caused little children to be hungry and cold and to grow up among evil associations. It has broken up more homes and wrecked more lives than any other cause."
Sir Wilfred Grenfell said: "Alcohol has wrecked more lives, starved more children, and murdered more women than any other single factor."

Thomas A. Edison, to the end of his life, maintained: "I still feel that prohibition is the greatest experiment made to benefit man."

Out of Europe's blackout of peace flames the inside story of submarine warfare! Timely as this newspaper you're reading! The new film which opens a three-day engagement at the Furber's Theater, Springfield, on Sunday, has been hailed as a graphic drama of England's battle against enemy spies and submarines. Conrad Veidt, Valerie Hodson and Sebastian Shaw are featured in this mighty epic which presents Veidt as an enemy submarine commander ordered to invade English territory as a spy.

SCHOOL TEACHERS Parents of School Children Beware of Bigelow Amendment It Will Impoverish Your Schools

The proposed amendment to the Ohio Constitution provides pensions of $50.00 per month to all persons 60 years of age or more, and contains a provision for a special land tax and a special income tax to pay the bill. The present Old Age Pension law operating in Ohio, furnishes the statistics from which to estimate approximately, the number of pensioners under the proposed amendment, and the total costs thereof. If adopted, the proposed pension amendment will cost Ohio in excess of 300 million dollars a year, in fact nearer 400 million dollars a year, or twice the total present annual income of the State of Ohio. The special land taxes and the special income taxes, provided for by the amendment will raise about 1-3 of the necessary costs, and the balance will have to be paid out of the general taxes, which means large tax increases.

The schools over the State of Ohio, are having a sufficiently difficult financial problem at the present time. The proposed pension plan will dip so deeply into state revenues, that the public schools will necessarily suffer a very serious reduction in income.

You Teachers and Parents of school children, who are building the generation to come, should not permit the interests of that future generation to be sacrificed in order to pay pensions beyond the reasonable ability of the tax payers. Pensions are important, and the State of Ohio, with the assistance of the United States government, is now paying old age pensions. However, the increased number of pensioners by reason of the reduction in the age at which the pensions may be drawn, and further, the increased amount of the proposed pensions, would seriously cripple the State's finances, and the State of Ohio cannot undertake the new pension plan without interfering with public school resources, and other public interests of the citizens. Be Sure to vote NO on the Bigelow Amendment. Attend the election November 7th next and record your opposition to a selfish and unreasonable proposition, which will unquestionably financially cripple the public school system. Vote NO for the sake of our schools.
